

Name	How does it work with other systems in your body?	What would happen if I didn't have it?
respiratory system	Provides oxygen to the cardiovascular system and expells carbon dioxide waste from all cells in the body	You wouldn't be able to get oxygen, so all your cells would die off musculoskeletal system nervous system cardiovascular system
immune system
digestive system

Name	What does it do?	Major organs respiratory system	takes oxygen from the air, and expells carbon dioxide as waste	lungs diaphram musculoskeletal system	helps you move your body, supports/holds up your body protects you/your organs	muscles bones nervous system	controls all body functions, responds to stimuli	brain nerves spinal cord cardiovascular system	circulates blood throughout the body	heart immune system	helps protect against infection and invading germs.	lymph nodes digestive system	breaks down food into basic nutrients	large/small intestine stomach